

Does Alcohol as a Beverage "Promote the General Welfare?"

When Men Have the Respect for Women and the Protecting Care for Children That They Should Have the Saloon Will Go

The Way to Get Rid of "Blind Tigers" is to Elect Officers That Can See

Will you, DEAR NEIGHBOR, take the responsibility of voting to expose publicly for sale a HABIT-FORMING, POISONOUS DRUG when YOU KNOW that it deprives men of their reason and self-control, makes disease, poverty, crime, wrecks manhood, blights childhood and breaks the hearts of women?

WILL YOU DO IT?
TO VOTE DRY—VOTE NO.

Lyons, Ind., Sept. 25, 1914.
Isaac M. Lane,
Maysville, Ky.

Dear Sir:—
I am so interested in the prohibition fight in Mason county. By reading the Bulletin and Ledger I get the arguments and some of them are faulty. As an old "rounder" I wish to assist in pushing a good thing along in the opposite direction to what I pushed a bad thing along 30 years ago. A community that cannot pay expenses without the aid of King Alcohol deserves to die.

The tribute of Mason county to King Alcohol in fifty years past is something awful to contemplate in ruined, blasted lives, and heartaches attendant upon the service of the Demon Rum.

Sincerely,

C. C. KIRK.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

"It will be sold any way," is the common excuse. Surely we have MEN enough to ENFORCE THE LAW. Lack such men, even the blind tiger, living in the dark, will not entice the young men like the lighted open saloon. If it did those who hide behind this excuse WOULD FAVOR THE "BLIND TIGER" not the open saloon. It would in that case better serve their SELFISH, GREEDY PURPOSES.

Would it not be BETTER TO BEG and MORE HONORABLE TO STRIVE than to be protected directly or indirectly by this traffic in HUMAN LIVES?

Every TRUE CITIZEN must VOTE for the HOMES and CHILDREN of his own county. Do not be guilty of giving license to this greatest cause of crime. Do not ADD BY YOUR VOTE to poverty, insanity and misery. Do not leave innocent children unschooled or send them to school half-clad and hungry, disgraced as "Drunkard's Children."

NO FRIENDSHIP of which some talk CAN EXCUSE this KIND of GUILT.

Show your colors on this GREAT DECEMBER DAY like a MAN and a TRUE CITIZEN.

COUNTY SENTIMENT.

DOES BOOTLEGGING PAY

(From The Elizabethtown News.)
Every now and then some person, who does not stop to think, makes the statement that there is as much liquor sold in Elizabethtown by bootleggers as there was by the licensed saloon.

When Elizabethtown had licensed saloons, the license fees, the rents, bar tender hire, and other necessary expenses amounted to $15,000 a year. Under this system (upon the basis that that there was a hundred per cent profit in selling liquor) it was necessary to sell $30,000 worth of liquor before there was a cent of profit to the business. From the profit made by the saloon keepers while they were in business we think it very safe to say that $60,000 worth of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors were sold per annum across the bar. Does any one for a moment think that the bootleggers sell anything like $60,000 worth of liquor in a year? It is absolutely preposterous!

Again the saloonkeeper had to pay $2,000 a year in fixed charges to do business. The bootlegger does not pay a cent of this, and yet THE MAN WHO SELL'S RED LIQUOR WITHOUT LICENSE NEVER HAS A BANK ACCOUNT AND IF SEARCHED, COULD NOT BE FOUND WITH $5 IN HIS POSSESSION. The saloonkeeper makes money with heavy expenses, while the bootlegger, without expense, never makes a cent. In Elizabethtown THEY ARE AN ABSOLUTELY IRRESPONSIBLE CLASS THAT NEVER HAVE CREDIT FOR A DOLLAR ANYWHERE AND ARE FORCED TO LIE IN JAIL TO PAY THEIR FINES FOR LACK OF MONEY.

The fact of the matter is that the abolishment of the saloon has CUT-TAILED THE CONSUMPTION OF LIQUOR NINETY PER CENT. We know of no respectable citizen who buys liquor in Elizabethtown of a bootlegger. THE BUYERS ARE A CLASS AS LOW DOWN AS THE SELLERS.

The disreputable business is so unprofitable and so dangerous that it is GROWING LESS ALL THE TIME, and with extra vigilance upon the part of our officers, to seize and destroy all liquor brought in for the purpose of sale, in a VERY SHORT TIME the law against the sale of liquor will be SELDOM VIOLATED as any other, for the reason that a business which is not profitable is soon abandoned.

WAS IT YOU?

Somebody voted to ruin my boy. Was that somebody you?
Somebody helped his pure life to destroy. Was that somebody you?
Somebody ARGUED IN FAVOR OF WRONG. Was that somebody you?
Somebody hushed in my life a sweet song. Was that somebody you?
Somebody turned all my day into night. Was that somebody you?
Somebody VOTED TO THROTTLE THE RIGHT. Was that somebody you?
Somebody LICENSED ANOTHER TO SELL. Was that somebody you?
That which could TURN PARADISE INTO HELL. Was that somebody you?

William Jennings Bryan and the Blind Tiger argument:
"The brewery is not a charitable institution. It is not operated for the benefit of the public. It does not want the saloon as an educational institution. It does not offer it as a moral character. "It wants it as a means of selling liquor, AND UNTIL THE BREWERIES BECOME THE CHAMPIONS OF PROHIBITION WE NEED NOT PAY ANY ATTENTION TO THE ARGUMENT THAT MORE LIQUOR IS SOLD WITHOUT THE SALOONS THAN WITH THEM."

DEATH-DEALING EFFECT OF TURPENTINE DEPICTED.

San Francisco.—Description of the deadly effect of turpentine, the new French explosive, is contained in a letter received here by Miss Ethel Crocker from her cousin, Casimir Poniatowski, who is fighting with the French. Sixteen hundred Germans, whose hearts had been instantly stopped by the action of a turpentine shell that fell in a trench they were holding, were found dead on their feet. M. Poniatowski writes, their rifles in their hands in the attitude of taking aim.

Mr. Stanley Finch and brother, Herbert, of Dallas, Texas, were the guests of their grand mother, Mrs. Jane Phister, of west Third street, last week. These gentlemen were returning to their home in Dallas from a visit to New York City.

Mrs. Sam Willis and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Winchester, were the guests of Mrs. George Perry of the county last week.

Mrs. Robert Pollitt returned to her home in Covington yesterday after week's visit with relatives in this city.

$2½ is the Price of Handbags

that are most exceptionable. Black leather in the shape New York women like so well. Prettily lined and fitted with inside purse. Altogether a good deal more than a two-dollar-and-a-half's worth of style and service in every bag.

School Handkerchiefs

so cheap it won't matter much if they are lost. Nevertheless though the price is only 5c, the handkerchiefs are pure linen of excellent quality.

We can't duplicate them to sell for 5c when this lot is gone, for the war has sent linen prices sky high.
